

Trainer Accreditation

Ensure Consistent Performance

Ensuring every trainer has the skills they need to succeed.

“ Accreditation ensures every trainer has the ability, confidence and motivation to deliver your training effectively. ”

An effective trainer brings more to the room than just automotive experience and good presentation skills. To truly engage and involve, it takes a deep understanding of your brand, as well as of the standards, policies and procedures expected of them globally.

TTi Global's Trainer Accreditation program is designed to ensure that both new and existing trainers have the skills they need to effectively deliver your content within the context of your brand experience and your expectations.

We offer a comprehensive accreditation program that includes:

Ongoing Coaching and Support

- Evaluation and Monitoring
- Coaching and Mentoring
- Certification
- Re-certification

Flexible Delivery Methods

- Web-based Training (WBT)
- Online Assessments
- Instructor-led Training (ILT)
